

Palacio Group needs no introduction in Goa

Press note - In the last two years, with two completed and two on-going projects, which include apartments, penthouse's, villas, row houses and plots, and launching two more projects this year, Palacio Group has come a long way from its humble beginnings to being a truly Goan developer.

"_Receiving the prestigious 'Real Estate Brand of the Year' at the recently concluded Business Goa Awards 2013, only serves as a testimony to Palacio's work, making us a trusted name in the Real Estate sector in Goa._" says Vinay Bhasin, co-founder of Palacio Group.

The group strongly believes that purposeful benefits today have become eco-friendliness and quality. They have gone a step further and spent time on the emotional and lifestyle aspects & benefits that would delight consumers, such as a strong focus on, development and progress which is in harmony with the surroundings and local culture, and the aim to make every development of theirs a wise investment for their clients. Their objective is to add two new projects every year to their repertoire of top class work.

TIMES OF INDIA

29th April 2013